Redmond Youth Partnership Advisory Committee

FAQ:

What is RYPAC? RYPAC's purpose under the City of Redmond is to be a voice for young people and to promote a community where youth are valued and involved. The committee will provide opportunities for youth to develop leadership abilities and interest in volunteerism through participation in the creation and delivery of projects within the community.

Who serves on the committee? The committee is comprised of middle and high school teens that represent the Redmond community.

How old do you have to be to serve on the committee? You must be in middle school or older to participate.

What are the time commitments?

- Attend monthly committee meetings (held from 6:30-8:30pm, day to be determined).
- Serve on one committee (time commitments vary).
- One year involvement (committee members may renew commitment on a yearly basis).

What is a committee?

- A committee is comprised of 1 RYPAC Chair and committee member.
- Committees have a particular focus such as recreation, voice or service.

What is the application process? It's as easy as 1-2-3!

1. Complete an application and send it to the City of Redmond.
2. Applications are given to the review committee.
3. You will receive an email or phone call regarding the following:
  - available committee positions (we fill positions as they become vacant) or sub-committee opportunities
  - information about interviews for open positions.
